§ 2 Security Check

1. With the consent of the person concerned, the security service commissioned by the organiser in the event area is entitled to search containers (bags, rucksacks, etc.) or items of clothing carried by the visitor for prohibited items and to seize these items. If the visitor refuses to be searched, he/she may be banned from the premises. The organiser and the security service reserve the right to call in the police.

§ 3 Conduct in the event area

1. Every visitor shall behave in the event area in such a way that nobody else is injured, endangered or - more than is unavoidable under the circumstances - hindered or burdened.
2. Visitors shall comply with the instructions of the security staff, the organizer's employees, other persons commissioned by the organizer, the police, fire brigade and the emergency and medical service. This provision shall also apply to instructions which are announced via loudspeakers and other media.
3. The site may only be entered and exited via the entrances and exits intended for this purpose.
4. All entrances to the site shall be kept free. Irrespective of these Site Regulations, any other necessary instructions may be issued in an individual case to prevent or eliminate danger to life, health or property. Visitors shall follow the instructions issued by the police or the security staff for this purpose.
5. Every person entering the site shall be requested not to throw away rubbish, packaging materials and empty containers, but to dispose of them in the rubbish bins on the site.
6. Cellphones and other acoustic devices must be switched to silent mode on the golf course. Audio, film and video recordings are not permitted.

§ 5 Infringements

1. Persons who contravene the Site Regulations or do not observe the instructions and orders of the security staff, the organizer's employees, other persons appointed by the organize, the police, fire brigade and the emergency and medical services, or who are obviously under the influence of toxic substances, may be prevented from entering the event area or ejected therefrom by the security staff and the police. The organizer and the security staff shall reserve the right in these cases to file a criminal complaint due to trespass.
2. If visitors ignore the instructions of the security service or the loudspeaker announcements (e.g. in the event of an evacuation due to thunderstorms with lightning strikes), the organiser is no longer responsible and liable for the safety of the respective visitors.
3. In the event of serious or repeated infringements, the person concerned may be banned from the event for its remaining duration.

§ 6 Liability

1. Anyone entering the tournament grounds and watching the event do so at their own risk. In particular, the organizer will not be liable for damage caused by stray golf balls of a player.
2. The holder of the admission ticket hereby agrees without payment or time restriction that video and audio recordings may be made of him/her and transmitted in audiovisual media during the event.
3. The organizer will only be liable for material damage and physical injury if it is based on gross negligence or intent.
4. The organizer shall only be liable in the case of intent or gross negligence for damage caused by the infringement of contractual or non-contractual obligations, especially due to unauthorized action. The above-mentioned liability restriction shall not apply to loss of life, physical injury or damage to health.
5. The above-mentioned liability restriction shall apply to the same extent to the organizer's subcontractors and vicarious agents.
6. The above regulations shall not involve a change in the burden of proof to the disadvantage of the event visitor.
7. Injured or damaged persons shall contact the organizer immediately to report the injuries/damage.

§ 7 Final Provisions

1. These Site Regulations shall come into force at 7 am on 28 June 2025 and shall apply until 7 am on 07 July 2025.
2. The Site Regulations shall form an integral part of the authorization to access the tournament and shall be published as part of ticket purchase or confirmation of accreditation.
3. The provisions arising from the Parking Regulations shall apply in addition to the Site Regulations.
